MANHATTANVILLE

TOWER 1995

Manhattanville
College

2900 Purchase Street
Purchase, NY 10577
(914) 694-2200

During finals week, at four in the morning, with two papers out of the way, three exams left to study for and six cups of coffee in her system, Kristen Gerard screams to relieve stress.

As Tiffany Zielinski lets out excess energy, Joie Wasiutynski distances herself from the situation and waits for the calm to set in.

On his way to a basketball game between friends, Paul Malecki realizes he is one hour late for a Bowling history exam.

The poor soul who dropped the FLIK glass is congratulated by Jackie Rosado, Tara Laspagnoletta and Brian Etheridge, along with the rest of the crowd.

many PIECES

Many pieces . . . With each successive day, week, month, and year here at Manhattanville, we find another piece of the puzzle. Manhattanville has provided the necessary tools, knowledge, and relations which we must use to help piece our lives together. Life in general is one puzzle, with many components and parts. Relationships, academics, sports, personal development and various other facets of life are all pieces of our life puzzle which we must link. The way in which we arrange the pieces reflects our own individual style. At Manhattanville, we have built the frame of our puzzle. As we progress through life, each stage will present itself with new pieces. The final product is . . . One puzzle.

The bonds of friendship are strong, but not as strong as the grip that Stephanie Gonzalez has around Diana Gallazzini's neck.

Wanted: five eligible studs to play feature roles in "Manhattanville Men."

Some people are born with a silver spoon in their mouth, but Brian Kelly was born with one on his nose.

Ahello and a wave to the camera people comes easy for Bob Schoenfeld.

Abby Washburn and Jon Chenard went up the hill to fetch a pail of water.

one PUZZLE

now that finals are over, Dory Lombardo lets her hair down and lets out her wild side.

Snow covers the ground as Fernando Montejo and Marta Trejos play outside ... IN SHORTS.

STUDENT Fittingly Together LIFE

Fitting together . . . all of the pieces that make up our social life are extremely important and take up a large portion of our lives. Parties, road trips, formals, and long dinners are all parts of college life. A majority of our time is spent on building relationships. Together, these are the pieces which lay the foundation of student life.

Here's something you'll never see on a Flik menu: a Dawn Lake sandwich!

Share your favorite Manhattanville experience.

I would say my favorite experience thus far would be getting the opportunity to become involved in so many diverse activities.

Robby Pande, '98

Being an R.A. in Spellman over the summer and having fourteen twelve-year olds stuck in the elevator for 45 minutes.

Sara Anne Crawford, '97

Maura's surprise party for Kim Hayes last year. I danced until six a.m. Oh, and the water fight freshman year when Magic's room was flooded.

Jennifer Sykes, '95

Doing the fire alarm rap in the Spellman stairwell at four a.m.

Diana Gallazzini, '95

As living proof that the Hair Club for Men really works, Rich Chehade shows off his full head of hair to Jon Chenard.

Inspired by the latest edition of GO, Lee Mahley and Tom Murray trade in the jeans and tee shirts and sport the crisp white shirts and ties.

In an attempt to do the daily duties, Chris Marker yells, "Hey, Tim could you please pass the Mickey Mouse soap?"

Overhearing the conversation, Brenna Grimsy laughs as she lathers up with the soap.

Convinced that they see the head of Elvis standing out on the Quad, Melanie Slaughter and Eric Lawton point surprisingly off in the distance. It is not until much later that they realize that it was the statue of Jesus.

Soon to be, the next Cindy Crawford, Jen Sykes, in her latest fall fashions, models off a long lustrous black wig.

Confused and bewildered, Tim Mitchell replies, "I thought you had the soap, Chris!"

"Are you looking at us; do you have a problem?"

There is safety in numbers when dealing with the Manhattanville men in Founders.

With a glowing smile across his face, Graham Saladino is showered with love by one of the many beautiful bombshells on campus.

Mama Lopez scolds Icelean Venable and Lulu Holmes for playing ball in the house.

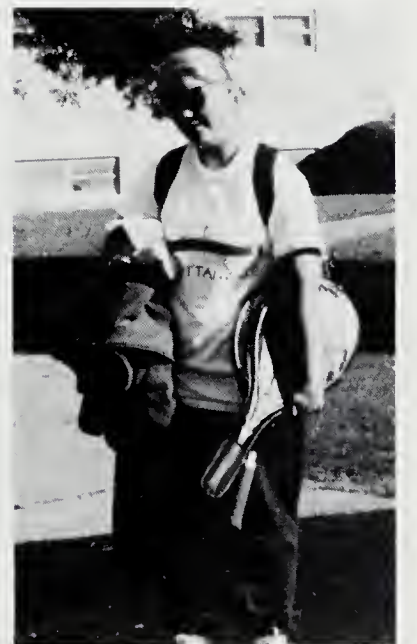

Watching the scene from up above, Lou Fernandez asks the photographer to check his sneaker soles for gum.

Phone calls are always welcomed, except when it's those darn MCI people calling Jaqua Curiel.

With no hands to spare, Nellie Chandler stops to readjust the position of her tennis racket, sweater, books and other collegiate paraphernalia.

In a desperate attempt to study Molecular Biology, Kim Correia and Joanne DeStefano decide to test the theory of information osmosis.

Champion pillow fighter, Sharisa Lopez grins as Lulu Holmes lays defenseless and Sheila Raphael covets the other weapon.

Hall hanging in college becomes a popular pastime, sport and method of procrastination, as illustrated by Michelle Salustri.

Warning: Jackie Rosado stands as proof that eating one too many Cheeseballs will affect your personal health and well-being.

In order to pass the time, while talking to the people at MCI, Jen Sykes and Tara DeFeumia pose for a picture.

With horror and disbelief, Maxine Lufrey points and laughs at the "Photographer Needs Model" sign.

Laughs and smiles fill the faces of Tara McKay and Meredith Hynes, but who is the faceless forehead behind Fiona Fahey.

Maura Gilson prefers the taste of Gulden's over Grey Poupon.

While leading his entourage of friends through the hallowed halls of Dammann, Pat Dillon asks, "Can you feel the conga beat?"

---

Freshman FLASHBACKS

The first days here at Manhattanville were definitely a unique experience. Once we finally learned how to get from the Spellman lobby to the room which would become home, we embarked on our first assignment — unpacking. Eventually, we would feel settled in Spellman and grow accustomed to our favorite FLIK meal, pasta. And, of course, there were the parties. We may have gotten lost in the depths of Dammann but the noise led us to our destination. After a few weeks here, we solved the puzzle and Manhattanville became home.

Life on campus takes some getting used to, especially when your new roommate is a cockroach — just ask Chris Marker.

Spellman windows are great places to read, as Chris Rucci demonstrates.

Back in the days, the halls of Spellman were rocked by Jon Chenard, Audrey Muller, Michelle Ruby, and everyone else in the Class of '95.

On snow days, FLIK trays magically disappear from the cafeteria but can be spotted all over the snowy hills of campus.

One floor up, Jamie Curtis looks down and sees fellow classmate hanging out.

Miles away from home, new students in Spellman can still hear the distant voices of mom and dad screaming "Clean your room!"

Bonfire FALL JAM

It was one hot, fun weekend, with a fire, lots of sun, and great music. The Bonfire was held on a chilly Friday night but we warmed ourselves by toasting marshmallows or drinking hot cocoa or apple cider. We danced the night away to some great tunes, thanks to WMVL.

Then, on a warm and beautiful Sunday, we hung out on the quad all day. Fall Jam was filled with music and fun. We all had a fun time, eating popcorn and cotton candy in the sun. All together, it was a relaxing weekend.

While the rest of the girls bug out in the back, Lulu Holmes walks ahead, making it known that she is not with them.

Old notes, textbooks, exams, and homework make for a warm and toasty fire.

Frisbee becomes a full contact sport for Jen August.

Once again, Stephanie Gonzalez proves she is not camera shy.

Free food can open anyone's eyes and mouth, as Kelly Archer and Eileen Daly decide between oreos and chocolate chip.

Living on CAMPUS

Top Ten Reasons To Live On Campus

10. You get to meet new people.
9. You're close enough to visit home but far enough so that your parents must call ahead before visiting.
8. The parties.
7. The bathrooms in Spellman — definitely.
6. You can roll out of bed two minutes before class begins and get there on time.
5. You can skip class and your parents won't know.
4. The food.
3. The three a.m. fire alarms in Spellman and Founders.
2. If you forget something for class, you can run back to your room and get it.
1. You get to live with your closest friends.

Robert Schoenfeld demonstrates just one reason why American Gladiators keep calling him to be a contestant.

Do you see what they're watching?

Sarai Correa enjoys a private moment on the Founders' first floor hall phone.

When she is not singing, Danielle Alteri breaks it down.

Quad LIFE

---

Q stands for Quiet
U stands for Uproar
A stands for Action
D stands for Delightful

QUAD: (kwod) n. 1. The outdoor grassy area that lies at the center of the Manhattanville campus. 2. A piece of land devoted to the cultivation of individual self. 3. An area of individual or collective activity, knowledge, or interest. v. —ulate 1. To be a student. n. —ulation 1. The art of procrastination and relaxation in an open outdoor atmosphere.

Do you think the professor will notice that we're skipping class to sunbathe on the quad?

Jen August continually dances to her own beat.

Solitude is easily found on the quad.

Someone should tell Stacie Dolin that this is Manhattanville and not the Rhode Island School of Design.

On a bright sunny day, a cool wind blows Jen Syke's hair.

Cafeteria LIFE

---

The Cafeteria. It's the best place to catch up on gossip, see who's around and who's not, and maybe even get a nourishing meal. And, new this year, FLIK offers day-long service with a broad selection of food. No more worrying about beating the 2:15 rush to make it to your 2:30 on time. The long awaited renovations have been completed and now we can enjoy FLIK in a whole new atmosphere.

Victor Davis
questions FLIK authority by asking, "What do you mean you don't have chocolate milk?"

Hey Fritz, you look a little different behind the new FLIK deli bar.

When asked by prospective students if she likes the food, Kim Correia smiles to grin and bear it.

And introducing . . . Finally, the FLIK renovations are complete.

With food and spit balls flying up from behind, Elena Keller turns and shows her fists.

faculty-student INTERACTION

A lot of times, we think of our professors only when we need help with classroom work. But there is so much more to be learned outside of Brownson. Whether it be a casual conversation over coffee at the cafe or hanging out on the quad, our professors are always there for us. The relationships we develop with them are as important to college life as the friendships we make on the first day here.

The distractions of hallway life draws the attention of certain students, as Professor Eisenhower discusses the philosophies of Marx and Engels.

At the SOAR Jazz reception, Delwing Gaines shares some thoughts and conversation to Jasmin Castillo and Tanya Diaz.

With thoughts of Jellybeans and cookies as a reward, Professor Pittman, Lily Villalobos, Lisa Castoldi and the other brave souls wait patiently in line to donate blood.

Shakespearean Sonnets, The Elizabethan Period and The Philosophies of Jake are all topics being discussed by Professor Hartmann and Jon Chenard.

Historical facts and all of the latest sports talk can make for interesting conversation between Professor Lawson Bowling and RJ Buckley.

a night on the town FORMALS

It's that time in each semester when everyone is ready to go home for Christmas break or anxiously awaiting the arrival of spring. People are tired of studying. All talk is of the formal: What's the theme? Where are the parties? What is everyone wearing? Even the guys get dressed up! There's dancing and hanging out and more dancing. The castle is decorated; everyone looks like they stepped out of a magazine; the food is good — how could you not have a great time?!

The Formal is a time for fun and friends, like Dennis McKenna and Heather Scanlon.

Coincidentally, both Maura Gilson and Abby Washburn decided to wear the ever so popular color of black to the Formal this year.

Upon noticing her long lost friend, Diana Gallazzini from across the crowded castle, Sarah Lieschke runs up to hug her and squeeze her and to hold her tight.

Nyasha Jimenez was escorted out "For A Night On The Town" by the Honorable Victor Davis.

With a smile from ear to ear, Wayne Lizzi takes off for the formal with Trish Hart as his first Dance Partner.

grad JAM

The Good

- the night before
- the parties after
- a day to procrastinate
- FLIK frisbees
- Mr. Manhattanville legs
- moon walk
- an excuse to go crazy
- summer is coming!!!!

The Bad

- the morning after hangover
- "Test one, Test two" (at 8 a.m.)
- the morning bands
- FLIK barbecues
- all those winter white legs
- next week's finals

Some people like to wander down to the lower ends of campus to catch the Valiant Spirit at the sports games.

When the sun goes down, so does the temperature, but not the energy or excitement level, so with sweaters and scarves, Kristin Gerard and Abby Washburn battle the brutal temperatures.

The fun and excitement of Quad Jam Day can be read across the face of Sarah Lieschke.

Sweet Dreams and Lullabies fills the head of Steve Dartley, as he catches up on his daily zzz's.

Part of the day can be spent strolling around and hanging out with friends, such as Lateef Allen and Jen August.

Study ABROAD

France . . . Ireland . . . England . . . Italy . . . Australia . . . Africa . . . Japan. Whether it be sharing a pint of Guinness with the lads in Ireland or climbing the Eiffel Tower in Paris, the experiences of a semester abroad will never be forgotten.

The opportunity to travel to foreign places is important to many Manhattanville students. So although we at M'ville missed our friends terribly, they got the chance to live the reality of traveling to places we only dream of.

Alison James and some of her Irish buds enjoy a pint in the pub.

In Australia, Jamie Curtis flashes his pearly whites.

With a Spanish city behind her, Elena Keller stops to photograph the breathtaking view.

Back in the states, Jon Chenard, Abby Washburn, and Alison James are reunited with Ireland.

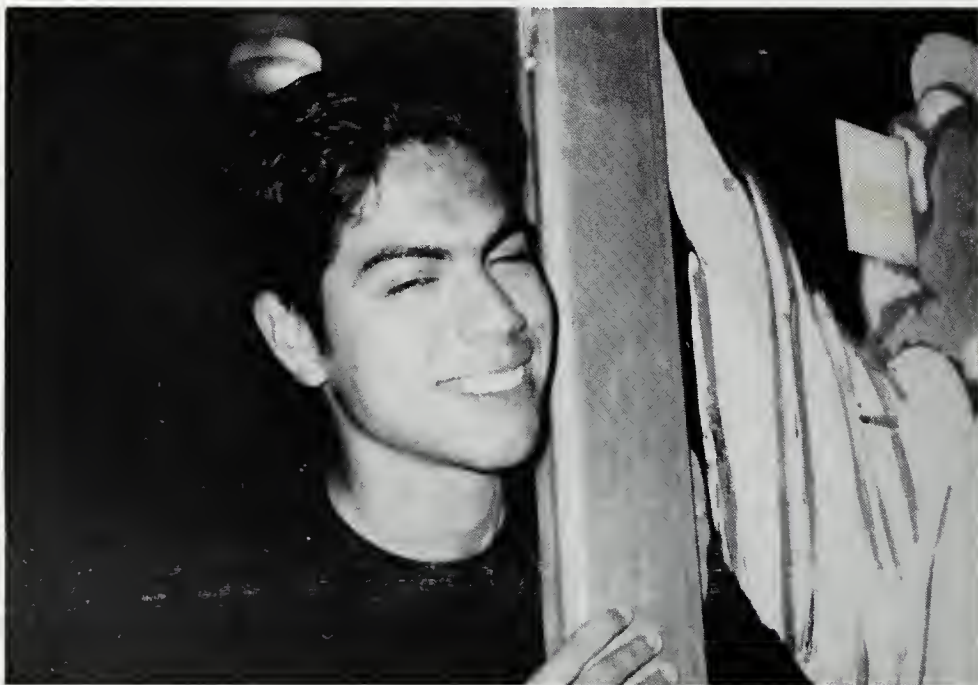

In Tibet, Zach Nelson makes a friend, but is afraid to get too close.

FRESHMEN

Freshman year is one filled with much adjustment and change. College Life . . . living on campus . . . commuting . . . community bathrooms . . . fire alarms . . . FLIK . . . noisy neighbors . . . late night studying . . . the never ending nights hanging out in the hallways with friends . . . practical jokes and pranks . . . begging for mail . . . the calls from home . . . the calls to home . . . the number to Domino's Pizza . . . first formal . . . and occasional trips home all make up a part of one's first year at Manhattanville. Your freshman year is one that you will always cherish and remember.

JUNIORS

Where did the past two years go? Where will the next two years take you? Time flies by so fast, that it almost feels like freshman and sophomore year never happened. But, you have the pictures, stories, laughter, and memories to prove it. Founder's, and new friends all welcome you into your Junior Year. Studying abroad brings many new experiences for those who take advantage of it, and mail for all those friends who remain behind. You walk amidst Seniors who gripe and grumble words like "Thesis," "Yearbook," "Internship," "Exhaustion," and wonder if that will be you next year.

SENIORS

As Senior Year closes here are a few things to forget and remember about our M'ville years.

Forget me nots

1. Senior Year
2. Party essentials: beer, ice, cleaning supplies
3. Never leaving your suite in Dammann
4. Quad Jam days and Formal nights
5. Oasis, O'Henry's, JB's, Cobblestone, Ivy, Willow Street, Marty's

Forget me please

1. Senior thesis or project
2. Fire alarms at 6:00 a.m.
3. Maintenance cutting the grass at 8:00 a.m.
4. The morning after Quad Jam and the Formals
5. FLIK food

Manhattanville has given us many unforgettable memories, but the most important thing is sharing those with each other. Good luck.

The Final Piece

The Final Pieces ... are being laid out on the table, and are ready to be placed. The dreaded thesis, internships, work, future plans, and many other pieces may appear as if they do not fit. Maybe the puzzle is too small, or the pieces need to be rearranged. The final year here is like no other, and many parts of our lives, which were firmly placed in past years, no longer fit. However, with each piece that is removed, another one is set in place. The final picture may look a little different but all together it is one puzzle.

In order to distract others from the burning blaze in the background, Elena Keller and Stephanie Gonzalez stand pretty and flash their pearly whites.

What piece of you will you leave at Manhattanville? What will you take with you?

I will be leaving $80,000 and taking memories that will last a lifetime.

Wayne Lizzi, '95

I'm leaving my roommate behind and taking a set of really expensive books I'll never use again.

Lori Horton, '95

Hopefully, I'll pack well and won't leave anything behind . . . well, maybe my liver.

Tim Mitchell, '95

I'll be taking my credit card debt with me and leaving my thesis behind.

Damon Dobbins, '95

I am leaving FLIK but will take some furniture.

Sharisa Lopez, '95

MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE

In the lower left are the black mountains of our earth and the M of ourselves, men. Above us is set the star, the light enlightening every man who comes into our world. In this light we read the book of learning, asking the meaning of our world and of ourselves. And so the cycle moves on without end. The seal, like reality, has no edges; its heights and depths, its width and breadth, lie open to the infinite.

Future Manhattanville Graduate
Saturday 10:00 a.m.
May 13, 1995

Congratulations! The Admissions Committee has completed its evaluation of your application for admission to Manhattanville, and it is my pleasure to offer you a position in our freshman class as a candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree. We are extremely proud of our students in this our 150th year, and we welcome you as a member of the class of 1995. We are confident that you will add to the many fine traditions at the College.

This year, the Manhattanville community celebrates its 150th Anniversary. During this sesquicentennial year, as in the 149 preceding years, we turn to you to make contributions to the community that will help shape Manhattanville's future and will establish new traditions for future graduates to celebrate.

We know you must be curious about how we reached our decision, so the Committee has asked me to share with you some of the major points of our discussion. In addition to your academic accomplishments, the Committee was pleased to learn, from your recommendations, about your interests and talents. You will find that students at Manhattanville balance their extracurricular involvement with their academic commitments, as you have.

I have included the necessary enrollment forms for you; please complete them at your earliest convenience. Your enrollment will become effective as soon as these forms are received by the Admissions Office.

Once again, I offer you my congratulations, and I look forward to welcoming you into the Manhattanville community.

MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE

There are basically three breaks a college student will take during the course of one academic year. Winter break, spring break and the ever so long summer break all show up before you expect or even plan for them. With each break comes a period of adjustment as you try to resettle into an old home or even try to find a new one. Routines and patterns are disrupted as you try to squeeze back into a room and space that some come to find they outgrew. SLEEP, GOOD FOOD AND OLD FRIENDS are reintroduced back into your lives. Jobs and thought of an empty wallet and depleted bank account fill some minds. Packing up partially to go home for a break is never fun. College is a time when most seem to develop their pack-ratting talents and junk, most of which your FAMILIES will not welcome, just seems to grow and reproduce. Spring break, for most is the best as friends try to organize trips. Sandy shores preoccupy the minds of many as words like Cancun, Bahamas and Bermuda float around. Many pack in the car and challenge the highways with the ever so popular, random and exciting ROAD TRIPS. For those who don't go away, breaks give enough time to sit back, relax, earn a little bit of money and hangout. For as fast as the breaks pop up - they disappear. Before you can blink an eye, you find yourself back in school and wonder if you ever left at all.

FACULTY AND STAFF

Piece of mind ... is what is offered to us each time we set foot into a classroom. Our professors are full of knowledge which can be drawn upon not only in a structured academic setting but also through an informal conversation. It is through them that we gain the knowledge which helps us to gain peace of mind.

To the Members of the Class of 1995:

As I consider my years at Manhattanville, I am left with many fond memories. None are more treasured by me than those times I spent with students. The Entente, Quad Jam, basketball games, orientation, quiet dinners, even lunch in the cafeteria, are all memories I shall hold dear.

Your presence here has enriched this College. I am sure Manhattanville will continue to be proud to claim you as one of its own. Your accomplishments, your life adventures will reflect what you began here. It is my hope that as you move forward you will remember those values held dear at Manhattanville: respect for each individual, the importance of critical inquiry and intellectual vitality, a commitment to diversity, and an openness to the opinions of others.

I am appreciative of the kindness you have shown me and hope that you will remember your time here with the same affection and fondness that I feel for you and Manhattanville. I wish for you every success and happiness and hope our paths may cross in years to come.

Sincerely,

Marcia A. Savage
President

Dear Members of the Class of 1995,

Congratulations to the graduating class of 1995. I am proud of your accomplishments and wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors. You have reached this significant moment through hard work, dedication and a willingness to absorb new ideas. Each of you, in your own way, contributed to life at Manhattanville and we are all richer for it.

As you move forward into the next phase of your life, we at Manhattanville reaffirm our purpose of continuing our mission, purpose and standards that will give meaning and permanence to the honors and degrees you have earned. The freshmen, sophomores and juniors who return next year will carry on our long tradition of academic excellence and continue their pursuit to make our world better.

I hope that you will return often to the campus and continue to think of Manhattanville as home. Good luck, and I wish everyone a wonderful summer.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Berman

SPORTS

A Piece of the Action

A piece of action . . . Manhattanville offers a variety of sports in which many students participate. Each season brings a new game. And it is not just the athletes who enjoy the spirit of competition — many loyal fans support our athletes. Whether it be a lacrosse game or a basketball game at Madison Square Garden, sports can be enjoyed by everyone.

Knowing how to play the game,
Gina Suma puts her best foot forward.

How have you balanced academics with athletics?

I manage my time and I work much harder during the season than during the off season.

Michelle Recine, '97

The more stuff I have to do, the quicker I do it.

Lee Mahle, '96

Athletics puts me on a schedule that I must follow. It makes me budget my time and discipline myself. It keeps me out of the bar.

Kalen Tubridy, '97

Sports helps my grades come up because it helps me balance my time more efficiently because I have less time to screw around.

Asad Syed, '97

I don't.

Peter Guidotti, '97

With both hands in the air, Trish Hart blocks all opposing shots and claims her space on the court.

Manhattanville takes control of the ball and goes for the shot.

As always, Jessica Cloutier shoots with perfect form.

1994 VALIANT OUTLOOK

After struggling through a tough 1993 campaign, the Valiant lacrosse team embarks on its toughest schedule ever. A season consisting of a fourteen game schedule will include a spring trip to Tempe, Arizona to play against the University of Arizona and Providence College, as well as regular season contests with Drew, Connecticut College, RPI and Skidmore.

This year's squad looks to continue its quest for an ECAC championship and possible berth in the NCAA Tournament. Two of the top four scorers return and a talented group of freshmen will be the mainstays.

Despite losing prolific scorer and USHLA Division III's all-time leading scorer and 1993 Honorable Mention All-American Anthony Persico, offensive minded senior Matt Feingold returns along with help from freshman Jason Bimonte to pick up the scoring burden.

Seniors Derek Grijns, Peter Attwood, and Jayson Farrer all return to help anchor the Valiant's defense, with freshman Ray Bicksler stepping into the goalie position. Coach Kolva looks to this foursome to provide a formidable defensive unit.

After an injury riddled 1993 schedule, the key to success this season will be staying healthy and the maturing of the younger players on offense. If the offense comes together and scores, the Valiants will look forward to a very successful spring in 1994.

As always, the Knickerbocker Lacrosse Conference will provide tough competition as the Valiants try to rise to the top of the standings. Maritime, Montclair State and Kean College will be the teams to beat.

Ready to display their Valiant Spirit, Manhattanville's Lacrosse team is in action, against Skidmore.

The opposing team is not much of a threat, as Manhattanville is braced in center field.

In between plays, Manhattanville Lacrosse team members come together for support.

CLUBS AND Interlocking Pieces ORGANIZATIONS

Interlocking pieces ... Many students choose to join a club on campus. Manhattanville offers a variety of organizations for any interest. It is through clubs that we give a little bit of ourselves to our school while at the same time gaining personal fulfillment. Clubs and organizations are important pieces which connect us to the Manhattanville community.

With smiles across their face, the Equestrian team proudly displays their medals of honor.

How has being involved in a club at Manhattanville enhanced your development?

their way in, interested in participating in the Campus Ministry at Manhattanville. How much it was appreciated.

The Christian Fellowship has received a very warm response to its call for cooperation with the first two runs on October 17 and November 7 and an advanced thank you goes to LASO for participating in the December 5th Run. Anyone interested in helping out on December 5 or for next semester contact Campus Ministry at ext. 480.

The Student Programming Board is hoping for everyone to come to the Fall Formal on December 2. In addition to a D.J. there will be a Jazz Band to help make the night extra special. "Bit by Bit putting it together
piece by piece
only way to make a work of art every moment makes a contribution, every little detail plays a part,
having just a vision's no solution,
everything depends on execution:
putting it together
that's what counts."

We would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to everyone who has helped to produce this yearbook. We are grateful and acknowledge the support and assistance of our Advisor Renee Milstein. Special recognition and credit should be given to our dedicated staff members, our wonderful friends, the random helpers and all those who labored over pots of coffee, cookies and tea 'til all hours of the morning. To all of our graduating classmates, we wish you the best of luck and hope that we have captured the spirit and essence of our class in this yearbook.

The 1995 Tower was published by the Herff Jones Yearbook Company located in Gettysburg, PA. 17325. The total press run for this years edition consisted of 190 copies using an 8½ x 11 page size format. The staffs original cover design was silkscreened on Vibra-Tex base material antique blue #41076 using an applied color cadmium red #14 and top foil stamped with gold foil F2. A hand tooled overgrain on 65 pound Colortext CE 1 white stock using HJ printing inks navy #281, scarlet #200, and black #950. The paper stock chosen for the entire book consisted of 100 pound Meade bordeaux triple coated stock. Special effects consisted of 4-Color and Spot Color printing along with overprints, reverses, mortices, texture screens and rule lines used throughout. Our professional photographer was Thornton Studios of New York City. Our publishers representative and friend is Dale Alger of Bedford, N.Y. 10506. Our customer service person in Gettysburg is Ms. Barb Hale. We'd like to give special thanks to Mrs. Renee Perigard, our faculty adviser, whose commitment and dedication helped make this yearbook special.
